Everywhere are archives, libraries, museums and buildings of interest - plus superb examples of modernist and Art Nouveau décor and architecture. Explore the many churches and cathedrals of Barcelona and discover the city's modernist architecture along Paseo de Gracia. Come evening try not miss "paella", the Spanish national dish. It's a delicious combination of seafood, chicken and vegetables mixed together with saffron-colored rice. The Euro (EUR), the currency of the European Union, is the official currency of Spain. Many stores and restaurants also accept major credit cards, which usually offer you a good exchange rate. When shopping, remember there is a Value-Added Tax added to most purchases.
